Mr. Boseman will address Members of the Class of 2018 and their Families, University Trustees, Officers, Faculty, Staff, and Alumni. Howard University will confer upon Mr. Boseman the University's Highest Honor, an Honorary Degree, Doctor of Humane Letters.

A Native of South Carolina, Chadwick Boseman graduated from Howard University and attended the British American Dramatic Academy at Oxford, after which he began his Career as an Actor, Director and Writer. Boseman can currently be seen starring as T'Challa/Black Panther in the Worldwide Phenomenon Marvel Studios' "Black Panther." He made his Debut in the Marvel Cinematic Universe as the African Superhero in Marvel Studios' "Captain America: Civil War," in May 2016. He will reprise the Role again for Marvel Studios' "Avengers : Infinity War" later this Month. Boseman's Breakout Performance came in 2013 when he received Rave Reviews for his Portrayal of the Legendary Jackie Robinson in Warner Bros' "42" Opposite Harrison Ford. Boseman received the 2014 CinemaCon Male Star of Tomorrow Award, was named one of the Top 10 Best Movie Performances of 2014 by Time Magazine and was awarded a Virtuous Award from the Santa Barbara International Film Festival for his Portrayal of James Brown in Universal Pictures' "Get on Up."

He previously starred in the Title Role of Open Road Films' "Marshall" alongside Josh Gad. The Film tells the Story of Thurgood Marshall, the First African American Supreme Court Justice, as he battles through one of his Career-Defining Cases as the Chief Counsel to the NAACP. His Other Feature Film Credits include: the Revenge Thriller "Message from the King," Summit Entertainment's "Draft Day" opposite Kevin Costner, Independent Psychological Post-War Drama "The Kill Hole" and Gary Fleders' Drama "The Express."

Boseman and his Writing Partner, Logan Coles, a Fellow Howard Alum, have Written the Script for Universal Pictures' "Expatriate," an International Thriller set around a 1970s Plane Hijacking. Oscar-Winning Director Barry Jenkins (Moonlight) has recently signed on to direct the Project, in which Boseman will star.
